

BASIC SECURITIES

Securities instruments are the cornerstones of investments. Money market instruments, bonds and equities are the topics of this course. If you need a basic understanding of how these financial instruments work, then this is the course for you.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the fundamental workings of money market instruments, bonds and equities
- Learn the terminology of the markets
- Deepen the understanding of the pricing mechanisms
- Understand the relationship of risk and reward for securities products
- Apply the concepts in exercises and cases

Who Should Attend:

Individuals who want to understand the basic concepts of the various securities products and the risks involved

How Will Participants Benefit:

- Increase self-confidence when talking to investors
- Understand how securities products differ
- Gain insight to the pricing dynamics and calculations

Delivery Method:

Lecture, exercises and group discussion

Duration: Two days